

Partnership for Knowledge

Partnership for Knowledge - PfK - is a higher education initiative of the Italian Cooperation aimed at providing scholarships to researchers, public administration officers, social entrepreneurs and young leaders.

PfK offers a unique opportunity for future leaders and influencers to develop professionally and academically, network extensively, experience Italian culture, and build lasting positive relationships with Italy.

The programme offers a number of Master of Science scholarships and PhD fellowships in the thematic academic platform of Cultural heritage and Sustainable tourism. The platform aims at building value around cultural heritage and sustainable tourism as engines for sustainable development.

In years 2019-2022 the PfK program provides a total of 19 MSc scholarships and 6 PhD Fellowships for Citizens of Cuba, El Salvador, Lebanon, Egypt, Sudan, Eritrea, Tunisia, Myanmar and Jordan who are resident in their home countries.

Application procedure

The call for the PfK PhD program is now open. Applications for PfK scholarships must be submitted no later than 20 May 2019 at 12.00 pm, Italian time.

English is the teaching language of all academic programs.

Please check the website for more information

<https://www.aics.gov.it/home-eng/fields/human-development/pfk/>