The Italian Agency for Development Cooperation (AICS) – Khartoum office, intends to recruit a migration/forced displacement expert in the framework of the Program T05-EUTF-HOA-SDN-13-01 "Strengthening resilience for refugees, IDPs and host communities in Eastern Sudan" (hereafter referred to as "the Program"), financed by the European Union and executed by the Khartoum office of the Italian Agency for Development Cooperation.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The project "Strengthening resilience for refugees, IDPs and host communities in Eastern Sudan" - T05-EUTF-HOA-SDN-13-01, funded through the EU Emergency Trust Fund for Africa and framed within its 2nd objective – strengthening resilience of most vulnerable communities – aims at improving the living conditions of refugees, IDPs and host communities while addressing the root causes of irregular and forced migration through the improvement of healthcare accessibility for vulnerable populations. The project has been conceived as an instrument to address the root causes of irregular migration and forced displacement by strengthening the resilience mechanisms of targeted communities through the strengthening of local health systems, to better deliver basic packages of health services in selected areas of Eastern Sudan, with the final objective of creating a more conducive and sustainable living environment for host communities, displaced populations and refugees.
