“SUDANESE HEROINE”

Comic Strip Competition

GUIDELINES

On the occasion of the International Women’s Rights Day, AICS Khartoum is happy to present the comic contest "A Sudanese Heroine". The competition, open to the Sudanese community, invites young Sudanese artists to present a comic strip that can express the meaning of International Women's Day in the complex reality of women's lives in the current Sudanese context. The initiative is carried out in the framework of the project WE-RISE! - Women's Empowerment for Resilience, funded by the European Union, and jointly implemented by AICS - Italian Agency for Development Cooperation and UN Women. The initiative aims to build inclusive, sustainable, and resilient communities in Sudan, promoting an environment that supports economic empowerment, and the protection of the civil rights of women and girls.

Objective:

- Get involved in the celebration of International Women's Rights Day.
- Encourage critical reflection and dialogue about the situation of Sudanese women.
- Raise public awareness of the challenges, triumphs, and experiences of Sudanese women in the current context of Sudan.

Art. 1 Theme:

"Capturing the essence of International Women's Rights Day in the lives of Sudanese women today"

Participants are requested to explore and represent, through a comic story, the profound meaning of International Women's Rights Day in the complex reality of female life in Sudan today. The artwork should capture the diversity of experiences, challenges and daily burden that Sudanese women are facing, highlighting their role and resilience in unique contexts.

Be creative and be inspired! and Participate in the competition to honor and celebrate Sudanese women by giving voice to their extraordinary stories through the powerful medium of comics.

Art. 2 Eligibility:

The competition is open to all Sudanese artists of any gender. Participation of women is encouraged.

Sudanese citizenship is compulsory.

Participants who are not based in Sudan are eligible to participate.

Art. 3 Submission Rules:

1. Each participant can submit only one participation request and must submit a unique and unpublished artwork. Works previously awarded or presented during other competition will be excluded.
2. Comic strip must not exceed 10 panels/vignette (size A4).
3. Language: Arabic and English. Comics in Arabic must be translated into English.
4. Format: The comic strip must be sent in PDF or JPG digital format.
